YOUNG NEGROES

Charged With Stealing Tobacco From Freight Car On American Company's Siding.

Friday morning Chief of Police James Mackey, Officer Dudley Fizer and Special C. & O. Detective Thomas Stewart that on Thursday night some one had broken a seal on a C. & O. freight car loaded with tobacco on the American Tobacco Company's siding in the East End and taken a portion of a hoghead of the weed. After an investigation the officers arrested Henry Stewart and Ernest Morton, both colored, on the charge.

In the course of the examination that followed the men admitted stealing the tobacco and said they intended to sell it over the local breaks.

They will be taken before Federal Judge A. M. J. Cochran, as breaking a seal on a freight car is in the jurisdiction of the Federal court.

CONDITION SERIOUS.

The condition of John Russell Gantley, the oldest son of Councilman and Mrs. Patrick Gantley of East Third street, who is suffering with heart trouble, is not improving. His condition is serious.

WITHOUT THE RIGHT

Thousands Are Voting, Says Attorney General Logan—Those Convicted In United States Court Are Disfranchisement.

Several thousand citizens of the state of Kentucky have been exercising their suffrage, when, according to Federal statutes, they have been disfranchised. This state of affairs has come to light through investigations made by Attorney General M. M. Logan of Frankfort; United States Marshal R. C. Ford and United States District Attorney Slattery of Covington. Attorney General Logan was consulted with reference to his construction of Federal Statute No. 335, which reads as follows:

"All offenses, which may be punished by death or imprisonment for a term exceeding one year, shall be deemed felonies. All other offenses shall be deemed misdemeanors."

The Attorney General advised Marshal Ford, after a conference, that he construed the statute to mean that all persons, convicted in the United States court, are disfranchised. The Federal statute has been in existence since 1903.

Section 1439 of the Kentucky State Statutes reads as follows:

"Persons convicted in court of competent jurisdiction of treason or felony or bribery in an election or for such high misdemeanors as the General Assembly may declare shall be excluded from the right of suffrage; but persons hereby excluded may be restored to their civil rights by executive pardon."

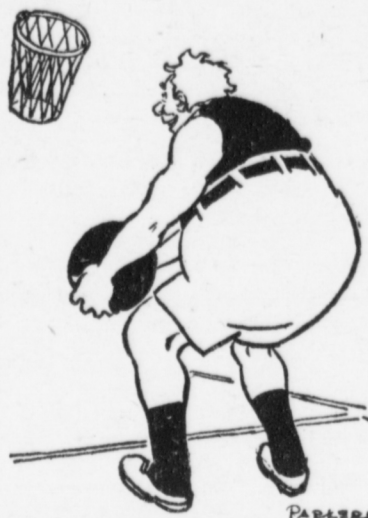

Attorney General Logan holds that none but the President of the United States, under this section of the State Statutes, can pardon and restore civil rights to persons thus disfranchised. United States Marshal Ford declared that the knowledge of the fact that convictions for illegal sale and manufacture of whisky constitutes a felony and means the disfranchisement of those so convicted, will have a tendency to greatly reduce the number of violations of the law pertaining to the manufacture of whisky. The records in the United States District Court at Covington show that several thousand persons have been convicted of "boot-legging and moonshining" since the enactment of the Federal Statutes, making it a felony subject to disfranchisement for such violations.

Basket Ball Notes

Manchester High School No Match For Maysville and Locals Win By Largest Score in Years.

Those who have been awaiting the basketball game between the Maysville and Manchester High School teams were more than pleased with the result, as the local lads trimmed the up-river players to the tune of 59 to 17. The game was played Friday night in the High School gymnasium. The followers of the local team were somewhat discouraged at the showing made by the team on the down-river trip in which it lost every game and were anxiously awaiting the time for the Manchester team to be tackled and see the return to form of the locals.

The Gold and White started the game with a grim determination to redeem themselves. The ball had hardly been thrown up at center until by rapid passing and accurate shooting Everett, the rapid little forward of M. H. S., had rung up a goal. Once started the Maysville boys could not be stopped and when time for the first half was called the score stood 49 to 7 in their favor.

After a brief intermission the game was resumed and with their second string men in the lineup Maysville continued to pile up points on the boys from the pearl button town, the final score resulting Maysville 59, Manchester 17.

This game was the most remarkable ever played by any M. H. S. team and several records were smashed, Everett breaking the goal throwing record with twelve, while the score was the largest ever made by a local high school team. The lineup:

Maysville
Hampton R. F. Carroll
Everett L. F. Pennywitt
Smoot C. McNeil
Parker R. G. Bell
Shea L. G. Brittingham
Field Goals—Everett 12, Hampton 7, Smoot 5, Kerr 2, Shea, Parker, Carroll 4, Pennywitt 3.
Foul Goals—Hampton, Pennywitt, Carroll.
Referee—Mance.
Attendance—100.

MR. JAMES FINNERTY TO OPEN GROCERY AND MEAT STORE ON MARKET STREET.

Market street is to have another new store. Mr. James Finnerty will, within the next few days, open a fancy grocery and meat market in the building formerly occupied by Mr. Edward Whittington. Mr. Finnerty, who has had several years' experience in the grocery and meat business, will keep one of the most up to date stores in the city and will no doubt enjoy a good patronage. The opening of this place of business leaves but few vacant rooms on Market street, which for a short time after the closing of the saloons looked very desolate.

LEAP YEAR DANCE SUCCESS.

The first Leap Year dance of the season was given by the fair sex of Maysville at Neptune Hall Friday night. One of the largest crowds that ever attended a dance in this city was present to enjoy the music by Goodwin's Trio of Lexington. Lunch was served at the F. H. Traxel & Company dining room. Among the out-of-town guests were Miss Curry of Carlisle, and Misses Wallingford, Hull and Jenkins of Flemingsburg.

ADDITION TO STABLE.

Mr. Allie James, the East Second street liveryman, is building a large addition to his large feed and sale barn. This addition will enable Mr. James to care for his growing patronage.

Our price this week for butterfat, 32 cents Maysville. Bring it in any day, any time of the day, and receive your check promptly.

"BASEBALL FOR SPORT"

Slogan For Proposed Reorganized Blue Grass League—Maysville, Lexington and Frankfort Club Officials Held Conference—Plans Were Outlined.

(Lexington Herald.)

Tentative plans for the reorganization of the old Blue Grass League, with the Central Kentucky towns members, were discussed here yesterday by magnates of the Lexington, Maysville and Frankfort baseball teams. The conference was informal and was held at the furniture store of Colonel C. F. Brower, president of the local club. Tom Russell, president of the Maysville club, was in Lexington, and C. W. Hay, president of the Frankfort club, was talked with over long distance telephone. Hogan L. Yancey, a heavy-holding director, and Stephen James, secretary of the club, were also present.

"Baseball for sport" will be the slogan of the proposed new league, with general running expenses reduced sufficiently to permit the clubs to break even at the end of the season. Few of the magnates of the present Ohio State League are in baseball for profit, it is declared, and all would be content to go through each season without a loss, giving their time and attention to it for the love of the sport.

Six Clubs Proposed.

Visits will be made in the near future to Paris, Richmond and Winchester in an effort to revive the old circuit, and Lexington, Frankfort and Maysville already have declared their allegiance to the Blue Grass League if the neighboring cities in the Central Kentucky section will join them. It is believed that sentiment in these towns is rapidly crystallizing for professional baseball again, and prospective backers will be interviewed within the next week, doubtless, by the men already affiliated with the Ohio State League.

The secretary of the local club already has written to these towns to determine the men interested in the game, and has suggested that Joe F. Carr, now president of the Ohio State League, be called into conference. President Carr, however, doubtless would not welcome the change, it is believed, if it is to rob the Ohio State League of some of its most valued members. He is known to be optimistic over baseball conditions for the present season, with a plan to enlist other cities to make the old organization the staunch circuit its backers would like to see fit.

Magnates Are Dubious.
In the past, however, local magnates, and last year oil of them, dropped a tidy little sum in the operation of the club, and are not over-eager to repeat the experience, although with a well organized circuit, with other economies, baseball might well become profitable.

President Hay assured the backers of the Maysville and Lexington clubs yesterday that Frankfort is again ready to enter baseball, and will stand with them in any movement they make for the betterment of conditions surrounding the national pastime in central Kentucky. Other conferences will be held in the future to determine the exact status of affairs.

THE HOME OF QUALITY CLOTHES

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO MOST MEN WENT TO A CUSTOM BOOT MAKER FOR THEIR SHOES, BUT HOW MANY GO TODAY?

The shoe stores multiplied astoundingly because they sell more shoe fit, comfort and value than the custom boot maker. The ready-for-use makers have studied and classified every foot until they can fit it exactly. It is simply a matter of a courteous clerk measuring your foot to find the right standard, size and shape; then you have shoe satisfaction.

THAT IS TRUE OF CLOTHING ALSO. IN "HECHINGER" CLOTHES YOU CAN GET THE EXACT FIT YOU CRAVE WHETHER YOU ARE STOUT OR SLIM, TALL OR SHORT.

A very slight adjustment is probably all you need—this is possible because we have concentrated fifty-five years of close study on the assembling of clothes that do fit. The values, the fabrics and the workmanship are high in keeping.

Make it a point to come in and let us prove it to you.

PARIS COPIES

It sounds absurd to say any of this popular priced Underwear was copied from Paris models, nevertheless it is true. Much of this lingerie is directly copied from the French. Less costly nainsook and batiste, more expensive lace, and machine work instead of hand stitching brings the American product within the reach of any woman who loves dainty undergarments.

Nightgowns 50c to $2

Material not too sheer, but very soft and fine, attractively trimmed with embroidery or lace $1; elaborately trimmed "best gowns" $2.00.

Envelop Chemise 50c, $1

Inexpensive and daintier than any we've ever had. The coolest garment ever made for summer wear.

Corset Covers 25c to $1

Dozens and dozens of pretty garments, all with reinforced arm holes. Corset Covers were never more artistically designed, more perfectly made than are these dainty garments and from the simplest to the most elaborate you will find the pricing as practical as the Corset Covers are pretty.

Princess Slips 50c, 75c

A charming representative of the "something new" you can always count on finding in this sale. These practical garments are for children 6 to 14 years old and judging from the eagerness with which mothers are buying, this "Little Lady's Slip" must supply a long felt want.

Women's Suits at Half Price

HOBBIES

A prominent physician tells us that "hobbies" are healthy things for us to have, and we feel that we must be blessed with unusually good health, as we have ALWAYS had a hobby—and it's

HARNESS!

Years ago, when leather sold for nineteen cents a pound, our boast was that we made the best harness that could be made of good leather, good thread and good workmanship. Now, when that same kind of leather is selling for forty-nine and fifty cents a pound, we still maintain that we have the best harness that can be made. All you have to do to prove that we are telling you facts is to go to the next "sale," and hear Col. Hensley Hawkins say in that musical drawl for which he is so famous, "This is a set, gentlemen, of Mike Brown's Harness. What do you bid?" Then's when you can see the farmer "set up and take notice," for he knows there will be some bidding on that harness.

This is the time of the year, when Harness is foremost in every farmer's mind, and this is the time of the year, also, when we are ready to sell him. All winter long our men have been making up harness for Spring trade, and now we are ready. Of course, it's higher than when our grandfathers used to buy it, but, considering the price of leather, it's a wonder how low in price and high in quality the Square Deal harness is.

Come in, gentlemen, we are ready to rig up those horses.

THE CALL OF THE TELEPHONE.

A man who was kept at home a week by an attack of grip, remarked on his return to work, that he had been amazed by the part the telephone was playing in his family life. It was his estimate that the bell rang three times an hour on an average, from 9 a. m. to 10 p. m.

He believed the conversations over the wire averaged at least five minutes apiece. He figured forty conversations during the day, totalling over three hours of time. His wife at times became desperate, and begged him to intercept the pestiferous calls. Yet the vivacity with which she conversed over the wire suggested that the interruptions were not wholly unwelcome.

Much of this conversation seemed to be merely social "visiting." Some of it of course represented consultations over the work of church and other organizations, while some of it was the ordering of household supplies.

The severe philosopher will say that the modern woman is wasting a lot of time over the telephone which interferes with the performance of the housewifely tasks in which a former generation used to excel. Probably there are cases where this criticism is correct. It is so very easy for any one and every one to gain access to the homes and time of other people merely by ringing up Central. People who would never think of calling in person will call by wire, and women with social natures find it difficult to resist the invitation to aimless gossip.

There is much to be said on the other side though, of the service the telephone renders in breaking the isolation of women's lives. It used to be stated that many farmers' wives went crazy, by reason of the loneliness of their lives. No need for that now, with the telephone making possible social visiting for ten hours a day, and if the lonely person can't think of anything to say, she can pull down the receiver and hear what the neighbors are saying. It is not surprising that it is almost impossible for the men to get the rural lines to close up business deals, at any time except when the housewives are preparing meals.

In town life the telephone facilitates marvellously the work of the many organizations through which women perform so efficiently their civic and philanthropic tasks. Many a woman is kept from becoming morbid by the constant contact she now gets with the life of other once isolated women about her.

"The country should bear in mind that when the present revenue system was inaugurated the ordinary expenditures of the government for that fiscal year (1912) amounted to $654,553,693. Every year since that time the exigencies of the government have required increased expenditures, until today it is estimated by the Secretary of the Treasury that for the next fiscal year (1916) the ordinary expenditures of the government, exclusive of any additional preparedness for war purposes, will amount to $741,891,000, or $87,337,037 in excess of the ordinary expenditures of the government the year the present revenue law was enacted." From Senator Oscar Underwood's speech in the Senate, defending his tariff law.

"We denounce the profligate waste of the money wrung from the people by oppressive taxation through the lavish appropriations of recent Republican Congresses, which have kept taxes high and reduced the purchasing power of the people's toil. We demand a return to that simplicity and economy which befits a Democratic government and a reduction in the number of useless offices, the salaries of which drain the substance of the people." From the Democratic platform of 1912.

Look at your pocket knife. If it has "Germany" stamped on it, it is an argument for a protective tariff. Formerly Germany bought pocket knives in Sheffield, England, but put on a tariff and thereafter not only made them in her own factories, but shipped them all over the world.

There is a demand to have automobile number plates made easier to read, but it does not come from those drivers who have acquired a reputation for their ability in fast running.

The society people are having their pictures taken in skating poses. It is not necessary for the attitudes to be graceful, merely for the clothes to be fashionable.

After ridiculing their wives for subservience to fashion, many men proceed to order overcoats with flaring bottoms cut to imitate the 1916 women's skirts.

The higher income tax the bachelor has to pay is not so much a tax on wealth as one on fear.

The only evidence of conscription in this country is seen in the girls' Leap Year doings.

SISTER: READ MY FREE OFFER!

I am a woman.
I know a woman's trials.
I know her need of sympathy and help.
If you, my sister, are unhappy because of ill-health, if you feel unfit for household duties, social pleasures, or daily employment, write and tell me just how you suffer, and ask for my free ten days' trial of a home treatment suited to your needs. Men cannot understand women's sufferings. What we women know from experience, we know better than any man. I want to tell you how to cure yourself at home at a cost of about 12 cents a week.
If you suffer from women's peculiar ailments causing pain in the head, back, or bowels, feeling of weight and dragging-down sensation, falling or displacement of pelvic organs, causing kidney and bladder weakness or constipation and piles, painful or irregular periods, catarrhal conditions and discharges, extreme nervousness, depressed spirits, melancholy, desire to cry, fear of something evil about to happen, creeping feeling along the spine, palpitation, hot flashes, weariness, sallow complexion with dark circles under the eyes, pain in the left breast, or a general feeling that life is not worth living.

I INVITE YOU TO SEND TODAY FOR MY FREE TEN DAYS' TREATMENT and learn how these ailments can be easily and surely conquered at home without the dangers and expense of an operation. When you are cured, and able to enjoy life again, you can pass the good word along to some other sufferer. My home treatment is for young or old. To Mothers of Daughters, I will explain how to overcome green sickness (chlorosis), irregularities, headache, and lassitude in young women and restore them to plumpness and health. Tell me if you are worried about your daughter. Remember, it costs you nothing to give my home treatment a ten days' trial, and does not interfere with daily work. If this treatment is worth asking for, then accept my generous offer and write for the free treatment including my illustrated booklet, "Woman's Own Medical Adviser." I will send all in plain wrappers, post-paid. To save time, you can cut out the offer, mark your feelings, and return to me. Send today, as you may not see this offer again. Address:

Twenty-six Mules At $195.

(Oldham Era.)
Luke P. Mansbrough last Saturday purchased from Ralph Guthrie of Shelby county, twenty-six head of 4-year-old mare mules for Jackson & Winn of Atlanta, Ga., for $195 each.

Kill Two Wildcats.

(Hazard Herald.)
Several evening since Squire John Jent of Carrs Fork, with one of his boys, called their dogs and sallied forth on a coon hunt. A trail lead them across the ridge to the river. Then they crossed the river and the dogs soon sounded the treed signal from a nearby hollow. Squire Jent discovered two animals up a short, scraggy tree blinking at him in the soft moonlight. He shot first one, then the other out, and hastened to examine his coons, but found them both to be wildcats. Old hunters say it is a rare thing to find two wildcats in one tree. The creatures are very seldom found in this section any more.

An Aged Violin.

(Jackson Times.)
Circuit Court Clerk W. D. Black has in his possession a rare old violin, it having been made in sunny Italy in the year 1681, or 235 years ago. The instrument was given to Mr. Black fifteen years ago by Bill Dishman, a carpenter of Knox county. Tom Riley, a musician of Covington, at one time paid Mr. Black $15 for the use of the violin for two years. Mr. Riley assured Mr. Black that his "fiddle" was one of superior quality, notwithstanding its age, and tried to persuade him to sell it to him, but Mr. Black, realizing its worth as a curiosity and a relic, refused. Mr. Black's son, Roscoe, now has the violin in Lexington to have minor repairs made on it.

Father of Twenty-one Children.

(Williamsburg Republican.)
Uncle Henry Terrell, aged 75, died at his home on Meadow Creek last Monday night after a short illness of pneumonia. Mr. Terrell was the father of twenty-one children, seventeen of whom are now living, and was a member of one of the largest and most respected families in this country.

Good Average.

(Mt. Sterling Sentinel Democrat.)
R. H. Bennett has almost won the tobacco record for the year. He raised 6,430 pounds of tobacco on 3 1/2 acres, or an average of over 1,725 pounds to the acre. He sold his crop Wednesday and it netted him an average of 15-cents. "It pays not to raise too much and raise it right," says Mr. Bennett.

A Real Heroine.

(Richmond Register.)
N. B. Deatherage tells us the following incident concerning little Ruth Deatherage, the 12-year-old daughter of Mr. Travis Deatherage of Brighton, formerly of this county. A hired man on Deatherage's place was out in the pasture driving in the cows, when a bull got mad at him and knocked him down. The little girl looked out of the window of the house and saw the man's peril. She instantly ran to the barn, bridled her pony, grabbed a pitchfork and rode bareback to the rescue. She charged the irate bull and stuck the pitchfork in his nose. The animal desisted in his attack on the man and made off still carrying the pitchfork in his nostrils. The hired man was badly hurt, but suffered no broken bones. The young lady is surely entitled to a Carnegie medal for her heroism.

POINTED POINTS.

POSITIVE PROOF

Should Convince the Greatest Skeptic in Maysville

Because it's the evidence of a Maysville citizen. Testimony easily investigated. The strongest endorsement of merit. The best proof. Read it:

Mrs. Della Luneford, 328 E. Front St., Maysville, says: "I attribute kidney trouble to a strain. I had sharp, shooting pains through my kidneys and a dragging-down feeling through my hips. I had dull headaches and dizzy spells and often if I had not caught hold of something for support, I would have fallen. I was in that condition for several years, up one week and in bed the next. I finally began to notice symptoms of dropsy. My feet began to swell and my hands were at times the same way. Finally, I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they cured me."

OVER THREE YEARS LATER Mrs. Luneford said: "Doan's Kidney Pills completely and permanently cured me and I am glad to confirm all I said in their praise before."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Luneford has twice publicly recommended. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

FRENCH DISCOVER CURE FOR CHOLERA.

Paris.—A cure for cholera, the deadliest scourge known to science, has been discovered by three French physicians attached to the Tunis branch of the Pasteur Institute, according to information given out here. Three scientists, Dr. Nicoll, Dr. Connor and Dr. Consell, risked their lives in making the tests by inoculating themselves with cholera germs. The newly discovered serum was administered and all three of the doctors recovered.

Excessive cigarette smoking caused the unbalancing of the mind of John Wallace Smith, 32 years old, a concrete man, according to the decision of a jury at Winchester Wednesday. Smith walked there from Cincinnati, where he had been employed, bareheaded and barefooted, wearing a huge overcoat.

SAVES DAUGHTER

Advice of Mother no Doubt Prevents Daughter's Untimely End.

Ready, Ky.—"I was not able to do anything for nearly six months," writes Mrs. Laura Bratcher, of this place, "and was down in bed for three months. I cannot tell you how I suffered with my head, and with nervousness and womanly troubles."

Our family doctor told my husband he could not do me any good, and he had to give it up. We tried another doctor, but he did not help me.

At last, my mother advised me to take Cardui, the woman's tonic. I thought it was no use for I was nearly dead and nothing seemed to do me any good. But I took eleven bottles, and now I am able to do all of my work and my own washing.

I think Cardui is the best medicine in the world. My weight has increased, and I look the picture of health."

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, get a bottle of Cardui today. Delay is dangerous. We know it will help you, for it has helped so many thousands of other weak women in the past 50 years.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON.

Lesson For January 30.

"THE LAME MAN LEAPING" Acts 3.

(By Rev. A. F. Stahl.)

In this lesson we have a very interesting story of a man who, being lame from his birth, was carried to the temple daily and placed by the beautiful gate where he could ask alms of those able to go into the temple. It so happened that when Peter and John were going to join with the others in prayer at the time of the second offering of the burned incense, which would be 3 o'clock in the afternoon, they were asked by this man for alms. When Peter saw that the man expected something from them, he commanded the man "in the name of Jesus, to walk." This he was miraculously enabled to do. His going into the temple with Peter and John attracted the attention of the people and gave Peter the opportunity to preach to a great multitude of people, though he was finally arrested for doing so.

Lesson Discussed.

"The Hour of Prayer."—Whatever else might be said about the Jews, we must favorably commend them for their attending the temple services. The lame man knew that a goodly number of people would be going into the temple at that hour. It seemed to be the custom of the apostles, Peter and John, to attend this service. The first verse would leave that impression. Rather a good practice, that of having a stated time when all the worshippers of Jehovah should come together for prayer. Then it was a daily practice of the devout people of the city. They were following the Old Testament custom of offering burned incense. This we need not do now, as Christ has set aside the Old Testament law and permits us to come individually direct to God.

"The Beautiful Gate and the Lame Man."—Our attention is called by a modern writer to "the contrast between the magnificence of the beautiful gate, with its massive doors overlaid with gold, and the poor crippled body of the beggar." So very often the opposites are closely associated with each other. Beautiful characters in the same home with moral wrecks. Wealth and poverty side by side. It is the duty of the healthy in body and character to offer the hand of help to their opposites even as Peter did. The healthy in body and the beautiful in character can not remain long such if they disregard these, their opposites. If all the churches and the Christian people would live up to the standards given by Jesus, the beautiful in religion would soon be a standard for comparison rather than for contrast.

"Better Than Silver and Gold."—This man wanted alms but Peter gave him that which was of more value to him. To give the beggar a gift may always keep him a beggar. Constructive charity is helping the other to help himself. It is easier to throw a coin to the poor than it is to teach the poor how to make a living or to help change the conditions so the poor can make a living. But the Christian must not take the easiest way. We must do as Peter did, give our help in the name of Jesus, the Jesus who took no short cut nor easy way to give us the best. The world will wake up some day and find that in much of its conduct it has been acting in the name of self and that this selfishness has but brought on the one who could have helped the misery and misfortune of the other.

"Miracles as Signs"—The apostles were able to perform miracles. By this power they were able to attract the attention of the people and to prove that the message they had to give was of God. There was the same use of this marvelous power in the Old Testament times upon such occasions as the Exodus, the destruction of Baal worship and the establishing of the supremacy of Jehovah in the time of captivity. These signs are not needed now. We have too many other proofs of the divineness of our religion. Then today the church is reproducing its marvelous works in character transformation.

"Peter's Sermon."—The people saw a wonderful thing had been done. A man lame from his birth was walking and leaping before them. They failed to recognize that the man was giving God the credit. Therefore Peter said something like this: "Do not look upon us as if by our goodness this man is made whole. But know this, that the God of Abraham whom you worship, raised up Jesus; the man whom you denied and killed. By this man, yes by faith, does your fellow townsman stand before you this day. No doubt you were not aware of the awfulness of your act when you crucified Jesus, but though you fulfilled prophecy in doing so, you should repent and turn to God and so receive forgiveness." There were some 5,000 who manifested faith in Christ as the result of this miracle and this pointed personal sermon.

EYE STRAIN

Should not be neglected, for it is the result of muscular effort to obtain clear vision in eyes which are defective. Glasses, correctly fitted, are a safe means of relief. If your eyes complain ever so little, have them examined, and the defect corrected. A little defect now might develop into a larger one later if neglected. We will examine your eyes and advise glasses only if glasses will benefit you. We will duplicate your broken lenses.
